

Leadership Skills Assessment Tool

Directions: For each leadership skill on the wheel, circle the number that represents the degree to which that leadership competency is a strength. The higher the number, the more confident and competent you are about that area.

